Financial Analysis: RELIANCE, TCS

Generated: 2026-01-26 18:54:08 Analysis Type: Comprehensive

Executive Summary

Financial Analysis Summary

1. Company Overview

RELIANCE: Diversified conglomerate operating across energy, petrochemicals, retail, and telecommunications. India's largest private sector company by market cap (18.76 lakh crores).

TCS: Leading global IT services and consulting firm, India's largest IT company with market cap of 11.44 lakh crores. Pure-play technology services business model.

2. Financial Performance

Revenue & Profit Trends

RELIANCE: - Revenue: 1.26-1.37 lakh crores (volatile, -7% latest period) - Net Profit: 84-138 billion (highly volatile, -11% latest) - Operating margins declining

TCS: - Revenue: 493-508 billion (stable, +1.4% latest) - Net Profit: 98-109 billion (stable, -2% latest) - Consistent 28% operating margins

Profitability Ratios

Metric	RELIANCE	TCS
ROE	6.61%	65.0%
ROCE	7.57%	78.4%
Operating Margin	~13-15%	~28%

Winner: TCS demonstrates exceptional capital efficiency with industry-leading returns.

3. Financial Health

Balance Sheet Strength

RELIANCE: - Equity: 3.14 lakh crores (doubled in latest period - likely bonus issue) - Debt: 1.17 lakh crores - Debt/Equity: 0.37x (manageable but significant)

TCS: - Equity: 757 billion - Debt: 2.25 billion - Debt/Equity: ~0.003x (virtually debt-free)

Cash Flow & Liquidity

- RELIANCE: Capital-intensive business requires continuous investment
- TCS: Asset-light model generates strong free cash flow

Winner: TCS has fortress balance sheet with negligible debt.

4. Valuation

Metric	RELIANCE	TCS	Assessment
P/E Ratio	47.2x	23.4x	Reliance extremely expensive
P/B Ratio	3.36x	13.5x	TCS premium for quality
Dividend Yield	0.40%	1.90%	TCS offers better income
Price to Book	Current 1,386 vs BV	Current	Both trading at premiums
Value	413	3,162 vs BV 235

RELIANCE: Trading at 47x earnings despite declining profits and mediocre ROE - significantly overvalued.

TCS: 23x P/E for 65% ROE with stable earnings - reasonably valued for quality.

5. Investment Thesis

RELIANCE

Strengths: - Market leadership and scale - Diversified revenue streams - Strong brand value

Key Risks: - Low ROE/ROCE (6-7%) indicates poor capital allocation - Volatile and declining profitability - High debt burden (1.17L crores) - Extreme valuation (47x P/E) unjustified by fundamentals - Minimal dividend yield (0.4%)

Recommendation: AVOID - Currently overvalued with deteriorating fundamentals. ROE below 7% at 47x P/E is unjustifiable.

TCS

Strengths: - Exceptional capital efficiency (65% ROE, 78% ROCE) - Debt-free balance sheet - Stable, predictable cash flows - Strong dividend policy (1.9% yield) - Resilient business model

Key Risks: - Global IT spending slowdown - Currency fluctuations - Wage inflation pressures - Competition from digital-native firms

Recommendation: BUY on dips - High-quality compounder with sustainable competitive advantages. Current 23x P/E is reasonable for best-in-class profitability. Wait for 10-15% correction for better entry.

Comparative Verdict

TCS » RELIANCE

TCS offers superior risk-adjusted returns with 10x better ROE, negligible debt, stable earnings, and half the valuation multiple. Reliance's 47x P/E with 6.6% ROE represents poor value despite its conglomerate premium.
